

DOUBLE FIRE
AT LEWISTONFiremen of That Place and Auburn Fought Them

IN ZERO TEMPERATURE

Damage of $22,000 Was Done in the
Central Block and in Main &
Bennett's Store Early
To-day.

Lewiston, Me., Feb. 11.—The fire departments of both Lewiston and Auburn were called this morning to fight two fires, one in the Central block and the other in Maine and Bennett's store, and they succeeded in subduing the flames only after damage of $22,000 had been done. The firemen were considerably hampered in their work by the cold weather, the temperature being about zero. Both fires broke out during the early morning hours.

OVERHEATED FURNACE.

Caused $20,000 Fire on Cape Ann, Mass.
Last Night.

Glocester, Mass., Feb. 11.—The home of Michael J. Meagher, a local real estate dealer and lawyer, reputed to be one of the best furnished houses on Cape Ann, was destroyed by fire last night. The loss approaches $20,000. An overheated furnace caused the blaze.

FIRE LOSS OF $400,000.

Explosion Starts Costly Blaze at Lancaster, Pa.

Lancaster, Pa., Feb. 11.—A fire which threatened the business center of Lancaster yesterday, caused damage estimated at $400,000. It started with an explosion, presumably of gunpowder, in the hardware store of Kelly Brothers & Raub and this establishment was destroyed, as were also several stores and other buildings.

Several employees of the hardware store were injured by the explosion, but none seriously.

NEGRO ASSAULTS WOMAN.

Escaped Convict Entered Her Home and Committed Outrage.

Tampa, Fla., Feb. 11.—Roland Flower, a negro convict, escaped yesterday, went to the home of Mrs. Mary Ellerbe, assaulted her and escaped. Officers with rifles went in pursuit and captured the fugitive. Flower was successfully lodged in jail and a strong guard was thrown around it. The structure is an unusually strong one with a high brick wall encircling it and if any attempt is made to take the negro, Sheriff Jackson believes he can frustrate it.

Officers returning from the scene of the assault, where they obtained a statement from Mrs. Ellerbe, report that excitement is intense in the neighborhood.

"BOMB" ROUTS SUPFRAGETTE.

But Bad-Smelling Mail Turns Out to Be a Crank's Hoax.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 11.—The postman walked into the headquarters of the American National Woman Suffrage association yesterday and laid an important looking package upon the table. Three suffragettes who started to open it were deterred by a suspicious odor. "Smells queer," said the first.

"Like smoke," ventured the second.

"Dynamite!" exclaimed the third, and there was a rush for the street. The police carried the bundle off to the navy yard. When opened, there was found inside an old tin paint box filled with dry clay, the head of a small guinea hen and some clippings relating to votes for women.

The package was mailed in Philadelphia by a crank, the police concluded.

PROTESTED THAT HE WAS INNOCENT

Howard Little Electrocutated at Richmond, Va., To-day, as Was Willie Blake, Who Assailed Woman.

Richmond, Va., Feb. 11.—Howard Little, who last fall killed Mrs. Betty Juntis, George Meadows, Mrs. Meadows and their three children, was electrocuted today. He still declared his innocence. Two minutes afterwards, Willie Blake, who assaulted a white woman in Portsmouth, was also electrocuted.

WORLD'S CHESS CHAMPION.

Dr. Lasker Retains Title After a Close Match.

Berlin, Feb. 11.—Dr. Emanuel Lasker of New York retains the title of chess champion of the world. His series of 10 games with Carl Schlechter of Vienna, who challenged him for the title, resulted in equal scores, each winning one game, and being drawn. The final game to decide the championship lasted three days and 21 moves were made. If it had been drawn, Schlechter would have been the champion. Arrangements are proceeding for another match.

INDIGNANT FLUTTER.

Fellowa Marriage of Czar's Brother to Three-times Divorcee.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 11.—An indignant flutter has been caused in court circles on its becoming known that Grand Duke Michael, the czar's only brother, who, until the little czarowitz was born, was heir to the throne, has secretly married a woman, who during her adventurous career has been divorced three times. The grand duke's attachment for her has been known for some time and they have been frequently seen together in fashionable restaurants and resorts in Moscow, but a morose alliance was not suspected by the public until yesterday, although it was apparently known by the imperial family.

The czar is reported to be very angry over the affair and the dowager empress, who lately returned from Copenhagen, refused to see Michael when she arrived here. The grand duke is now commanding a cavalry regiment at Orel.

EDITOR GOES TO JAIL.

Because He Was First Charged with Libeling Pres. Gomez.

Havana, Feb. 11.—Evaristo Estenoz, a liberal leader and editor of the negro organ Provision, for whom a bench warrant was issued on Tuesday on the charge of printing a libel against President Gomez after failure to respond to a summons, appeared in the correctional court yesterday afternoon. He made no defense and was sentenced to six months' imprisonment. There is no appeal from this decision.

General Estenoz is the third editor to be convicted of libeling the administration and President Gomez is determined rigorously to prosecute every one who is guilty of publishing what the government regards as libellous articles.

The newspapers almost unanimously condemn the government policy.

The sentence of General Estenoz has aroused the strong resentment of the negro element.

PROBATION FOR INTOXICATION

Recommended by Trustees of Foxboro, Mass., Institution As Essential

Early in Career of Drunk-

Boston, Feb. 11.—That imprisonment should be abolished, and probation substituted in dealing with drunkards, are the conclusions which the trustees of the state hospital at Foxboro have derived from their special investigation into the treatment of inebriates, according to a special report filed with the local board yesterday.

The report states that probation is essential early in the career of drunkards. After that there comes institution treatment and some cases may be sent to the house of correction, but the trustees state emphatically that drunkards should be segregated from other criminals.

MANAGUA AWAITING ATTACK.

Government Forces Defeated Near Mymay and Road to Capital Open.

Managua, Nicaragua, Feb. 11.—By the capture of Matagalpa, eighty miles to the northeast of here, and the defeat of the government forces near Mymay, the road to the capital is now believed to be opened. It is regarded as impossible for General Vazquez to obstruct the revolutionary army and an advance on the city. An attack is expected hourly.

MORE TROUBLE IN COATS' MILL.

Others in Sympathy with Striking Backboys Leave.

Pawtucket, R. I., Feb. 11.—The male spinners have been called out of the J. P. Coats' mill in sympathy with the striking backboys. The mill is still running on surplus stock. An executive committee of the Textile Workers of America meets this afternoon at Fall River and it is expected it will endorse the strike, which will probably result in a tieup.

CZARINA'S DEATH EXPECTED.

New Unable to Recognize Husband and Children.

Erdykunhen, Eastern Prussia, Feb. 11.—Alarming reports reached here to-day of the condition of the czar's wife, who it was stated, is unable to recognize her children and husband. The government is exercising strict censorship. The constant attendance of physicians and nurses is thought to indicate that death is imminent.

PLAINFIELD.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Bartlett were in Barre Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Johnson were in Montpelier Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Burton Pike of Marshfield were in town Thursday.

Mr. Bean of Randolph recently visited his sister, Mrs. Harriet Scott.

Mrs. Nelson of Barre visited at the home of T. H. Bartlett one day this week.

Mrs. E. J. Colby went to Concord Tuesday to visit her daughter, Miss Ethel Colby, who has been seriously ill. She is reported as much better.

The ministers' meetings, which were held at the Methodist Episcopal church Monday and Tuesday, were well attended. Several addresses were given by visiting ministers, which were very interesting and helpful.

IN SO. BARRE MAN'S CASE

Man Who Sold Buggy Automobile to
Fred B. Drury Also Promised

Never to Reside in Massachusetts.

Boston, Feb. 11.—Andrew F. Gormley, formerly a Boston horse dealer, after whom the Boston police department sent two inspectors across the continent to Seattle on a charge of larceny, had his case placed on file yesterday by Judge Wait in the superior criminal court.

While awaiting sentence for the larceny of $200 from Frederick B. Drury of Barre, Vt., in this county, Gormley jumped his $2,000 bail. Two months ago Deputy Superintendent Watts received a letter from Washington, stating that Gormley under an assumed name was in business in Seattle. Gormley was in business in Seattle. Gormley was in business in Seattle. Gormley was in business in Seattle.

Gormley at no time was very far out of Seattle, and when the inspectors started homeward he put himself into communication with John H. Casey, his counsel.

Counsel yesterday arranged with the court for Gormley to pay the expenses of the police in going to Seattle, amounting to $723, and furthermore the conditions of filing the case that Gormley never again take up his legal residence in Massachusetts and that he does not engage in business here. He may come to this state, but only to remain one month at a time.

Counsel said Gormley's business in Seattle is large and lucrative.

Gormley was fined $500 by the superior criminal court several years ago for the larceny in connection with sales of horses to a Vermont farmer. The Drury larceny charge developed in the sale of a machine by Gormley.
